UNIPR4LIFE – ONFOODS

BIO BAG: an organic from local producers for you!

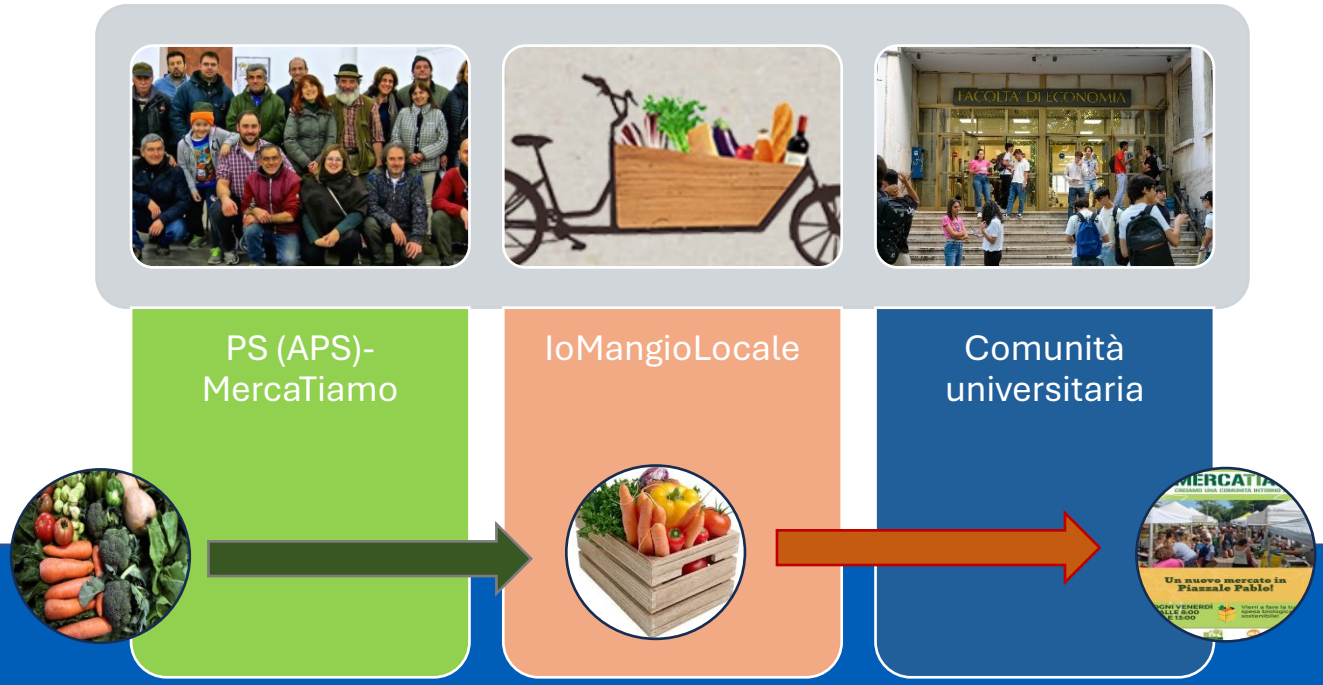

UNIPR4LIFE : BIO-BAG

Through the ONFOODs project, the University of Parma offers weekly BIO-BAG containing organic, seasonal fruit and vegetables from the Province of Parma to all UNIPR students.

The aim is to promote healthy and sustainable eating habits within the university community!

How does it work? You order (and pay for) the BIO-BAG via the IoMangioLocale website and collect it directly from the MercaTIamo farmers' market in Piazzale Pablo on Friday mornings.

Take advantage of it!

Every week, get your organic bag of local, fresh, and sustainable fruit and vegetables from your smartphone!
