LUISS

Università di Roma

Latest Developments of Climate Change Litigation: Effective Judicial Protection before Italian and European Courts

Conference organized as part of the PhD in Law and Business

20 March 2026, 9:30 am
The Dome 2, Luiss Campus at Viale Romania 32, Rome

Welcome and Introduction
Giovanni Piccirilli
Daniele Gallo
Ferruccio Auletta
Luiss

I – Justiciability in Climate Change Litigation

Moderator
Raffaele Bifulco
Luiss

Speakers

Francesco Munari
University of Genoa
The Contested Nature of the Right to Climate Justice

Valentina Capasso
University of Naples Federico II
Standing Requirements in Climate Litigation

Elena d'Alessandro
University of Turin
The Remedial Function of the Judgement and Private Enforcement Measure

II – Climate Change Litigation before European Courts

Moderator
Cristina Fasone
Luiss

Speakers

Chiara Gentile
Luiss and Max Planck Heidelberg
Climate Change and Constitutional Protection

Christina Eckes
University of Amsterdam
Access to Climate Justice before the ECtHR

Luca Prete
CJEU
Access to Climate Justice before the CJEU

Latest Developments of Climate Change Litigation: Effective Judicial Protection before Italian and European Courts

Conference organized as part of the PhD in Law and Business

III – Private Law Perspectives on Climate Change

Moderator
Barbara De Donno
Luiss

Speakers
Federico Pistelli
University of Trento
Limits of Tort Law and Evidence in Court

Chris Thomale
University of Vienna e Roma Tre
Climate Tort Liability: A Cross-Entity Responsibility of Carbon Majors for Scope 1-3 Emissions

Lorenzo Serafinelli
University of Rome La Sapienza
The Liability of Administrators, Lenders and Stakeholders

Skye Perryman
Democracy Forward
Strategic Climate Litigation in the US

IV – Conclusions: What Future for Climate Change Litigation in Italy and Europe?

Simone Favaloro
Luiss

Clara Helen Laetitia Labus
Luiss

Luca Borsotti
University of Roma Tre

Organising Committee
Luca Borsotti, Simone Favaloro and Clara Helen Laetitia Labus

Registrazione

Partecipazione online